- CASE: When ziyaad came to home he parked the vehicle near chabutra...So I said Salam to ziyaad and a few seconds afterwards we actually hugged it each other wishing EID...While greeting each other FAREED'S BHAI YOUNGEST SON..BARGES IN!

Now the thing to notice here is while we were meeting each other Ziyaad's Burgman was ACTIVELY RUNNING AND ON STAND.

So here in a few moments that young boy (3-4 yr old) come in sits on the vehicle and pushes the accelerator..(we were still greeting each other hugging each other at that time)

And in a second the vehicle runs forwards..In a glimpse when he sat down on the vehicle I tried to stop him but he pushed race and that made the vehicle proceed forward...It travelled 100 cm or so and the vehicle stopped near the gate with the boy riding on it..The boy is safe alhamdulila....The burgman had a few scratches on it. If that boy's leg would have been on the other side then he might have actually lost it.

- After a while I shouted at him...Hearing that voice Mom and Bhaiya comes out in the balcony..Bhaiya says to slap him but I know not to becuz He is just a kid. Immediately after the crash happened the boy very smartly said sorry sorry with a cute face he thought we would forgive but I called upon shafzal bhaiya becuz that was were that kid with his sister (of the same age were going.)
- shafzal bhaiya didnt came but his younger brother did..He heard the story even muzzamil from the corner spawned and baba explained what happened..Shafzal Bhaiya's brother closed the gate with the kids in..Dont know what happened after that but we and ziyaad went straight to Zain's home.

- Then we went to captain kunafa as our 2nd destination...Every one at good amount that large kunafa was finished in a few moments.

25/06/23 #JOURNAL

- Fajr namaz (By Bending)
DID WUDU
A backpain started it actually did when I was about to sleep but during fajr it increased badly
- I thought that i might becuz of some kidney issues but it wasn't, bhaiya told a lot of things suspecting a kidney issue I got tensed becuz as the pain started I went down to bhaiya ofc he was sleeping during fajr..In his deep sleep he asked questions about the pain and at a point of time I too believed that it was a kidney issue due to a lot sugar issues.
- I kissed mom on forehead dono why I did but few seconds before I planned this. Did I really express love? Mom before I kissing her asked what are you doing here in a abrupt manner. But as she got to know that my back is paining and bhaiya suspect it as a kidney issue. she somehow got tensed rushed and tried to diagnose...She then went to the kitchen to boil some milk
- As Bhaiya was getting prepared to take me to Vijaya Diagnostic centre but bhaiya said to first lets go to asra hospital
- I drank 1/4 of the cup of milk given by mom.
- It was one of the first time bhaiya got prepared maybe its his first time getting ready this fast.
- I and bhaiya went to asra hospital met with the kind hearted doctor named Abdur rahman he maybe was an junior doctor but he was very loving towards me.
- He saw my back and said that did you wake up and did some stretching I said yes I went on and did wudu...He then touched my back and said its some kind of muscle problem becuz of less fluids in body...And yes bhaiya asked him weather it is due to tea/cool drink...Dr.Abdur rahman said a big nooo... He explained that It might be multiple reasons but not this one..He seriously suspected the sleeping position.
- Then bhaiya bought medicines in Farah hospital and we went back home.
- I before reaching msg'ed mom that it wasnt a big issue after leaving the hospital I noticed bhaiya giving money to some beggars maybe he also got relieved.
- So After reaching home I and everyone got relieved after eating food and medicines I went to sleep and woke up during Zuhrah
- After having food served by mom I offered ZUHR NAMAZ (BY SITTING)
- Another thing forgot to mention amna, baba also showed attention towards me despite my behaviour towards them I got love... Baba gave warm clothes Becuz I was shivering very much...& amna at first glance understood that I had some problem due to my place of sleeping and she said to sleep in front of her in the bed which was warm..Even though she is not her consciousness she understood me. Maybe us I will forget them after they Die.
- Spoke hour long to Taher...I updated him before going to sleep during morning...Taher then asked me an honest question:

Man what kind of patience do you have for me If I were in your position & someone would declined my calls then I would tell him to fuck off

I answered him unironically saying that you are the one who understands me from the roots and know everything...I even told him that I got molested in my childhood but I forgave him.

Asalmualikum, with all courage and all due respect I am writing this. Baji you don't need to worry every time for everything. Things are made so that they could go wrong try taking things lightly because ultimately they'll become much easier if you try to be back of things it will only get worse. Lets say Bismillah and do everything in our power to excel the business and live a busy life and enjoy our eternal afterlife in peace.

I am starting the work. and please Recite Surah Naas thrice because our problems might because of someone's evil eye.

Hmm..Boht kirak hogaya bhai parsum ke din SORRY bole Dr.s merko due to his employee aslmein bhai merku sabb meeseva ka potta samjhliye jab bole jab call kare kaam nikalre printer nahi chalra Katey wtf bruh dont you know How to press ctrl+p...Nd I think Adil uncle don't trusts me anymore but Its dangerous for our future mission fuck it...Need to build trust...

Gmr called me in the morning asking to do this pdf work and I was in sleepy mode fuck it bhai koun 5-6 calls karta student ko lol

Taher sey choti Disagreement hogayi bhai how come a person when called so many times do not even reply once I have given 100% he is always my priority but Why can't he spare 2mins and say I am busy why did he cut my call..

Dr.shahana need me so badly that she didn't keep her promise and told to come today but I delayed by saying I have to go with family

And today was one of the holiest mornings I might have lived because I read surah Yaseen after Fajr Namaz and recited soo many times BABA surah infront of him

I thought he is almost healthy in the morning but again he is sick fuck it.

Chaprism is rising in front my brother fuck it boi I don't want him to be like thatm

Moin again I am feeling bad for him Because I can feel that he has no one to talk to Zubaida I can't blame her She also has no one to share his memories but boi how can she a Muslim girl show me his hairs and send video recording I don't want to hear her voice because I feel cringe becuz she acts so made-up she isn't acting herself I truly like her as a sister but How can I say when/if she disagrees being a sister to me.

Mosque finally I am going to Mosque but missing out Fajr and esha and today emmag sahab told me thank you and also gave me 100inr for bringing a broom...100 ruppes is not enough but it's never like that someone from the holy mosque trusted me I had trouble socializing with someone near me house Am I always like an introvert? Or I act extrovert when it's my turn and my topic i love? I haven't excersiced my speech skills in a long while I also have lost sense of all English spellings.

Exhibition was planning to go but baba health is not upright I am truly concerned because I might no have big financial debt but I have debt lot of values with him I want to repay!

Takbur mom says I have it and I am also lately realising it shit it boi I can't study properly because those voices telling me I am being delusional by thinking I am big man

Zain yeah he can be one of a true friends but too much feeble and can't handle lot of pressure bad at English but the thing is he knows how to handle foes but he is also too innocent l.

Boi I abused I again Have to deeply apologize to her
